

SHOP FRONT

New stores and sites in your neighbourhood – check them out this weekend.

1. Melbourne, Vic: Lenko

What's new... After a speedy reno, artist Dana Lenko opens her second Lenko store, this time in Melbourne's dazzling Art Deco Cathedral Arcade.

We love... With Lenko's own handpainted murals and the blend of edgy fashion and off-the-wall buys (the $1 Unlucky Dip Jar is our fave), this fascinating boutique has just the right amount of quirk to make it cool.

The It-factor... As well as the in-house brand – its shiny Golden Luxe jacket (1), wicked slogan tees and animal-print everything due out in August – the store supports a stellar line-up of Melbourne designers, including Chip Chop!, and I Heard They Eat Cigarettes.

Where it's at... Lenko, Shop 5, Cathedral Arcade, cnr Flinders Ln and Swanston St, Melbourne, Vic, (03) 9077 2177.

What's new... An accessories haven, and your go-to for all things celeb-inspired, launches into cyberspace.

We love... Looking for a cuff or necklace you spotted on the red carpet? With stacks of brands loved and worn by our fave A-listers, such as CC Skye, like the Double Wrap Chain bracelet worn by Nicole Richie (2), Jessica Kagan Cushman (Hilary Duff), Sir Alistair Rai (Lindsay Lohan) and local brand Sophie Kyron Jewellery (2a), this site deserves to be the latest addition to your favourites.

The It-factor... Get Styled Now! has just added a range of Hoss Intropia jewellery and accessories to its collection, making it the exclusive online stockist. This means that not only can you get your fave celeb's look in a snap, you can also add a piece of tribal chic to your look at the click of a mouse.

3. Doncaster, Vic: Georg Jensen

What's new... Iconic Scandinavian label opens its flagship in Westfield Doncaster.

We love... From sleek homewares to delicate jewellery – like the stunning Regitze necklace (3a) – Georg Jensen is all about elegance. And the newest store delivers exactly that, showcasing the new range in an equally luxe setting.

The It-factor... This store is set up like a traditional Danish home, featuring a dining area, sitting room, and kitchen in its signature minimalist style. A nod to the brand's Danish heritage, the store's concept was the work of London-based architect Mark Pinney, who incorporated imported furnishings into the rooms.

Where it's at... Georg Jensen, Shop 1091, Westfield Doncaster, 619 Doncaster Rd, Doncaster, Vic, (03) 9840 7855.

4. Chatswood, NSW: Sambag

What's new... Adding to the designer fashion wing at Chatswood Chase, Sambag opens its biggest boutique yet.

We love... What began ten years ago with Sambag director Sam Wagner selling bags at Paddington Markets, has become a label loved by the likes of Elle Macpherson and Jennifer Hawkins. The fifth store will deliver all the things we've come to expect from Sambag, including their signature ballet flats and trench coats (4a), as well as intricate jewellery.

The It-factor... In keeping with the brand's pretty aesthetic, the new boutique takes on the look of a feminine boudoir, fitted out with printed wallpaper from London, mirrored drawers, hand-carved timber panelling and pom pom light shades in powder blue.

Where it's at... Sambag, Shop 31, Chatswood Chase, 345 Victoria Ave, Chatswood, NSW, (02) 9412 1433.

5. Castle Hill, NSW: Piper Lane

What's new... After four years, Piper Lane opens its very first boutique in Sydney's north-west.

We love... Just like the label, the new store has a young, fresh look, with splashes of Piper Lane's signature colour, purple. Vintage wallpapers, white-washed floorboards, lush violet carpet and statement lilac lampshades make for a stylish and welcoming environment in which to peruse the racks and check out the label that has become renowned for its vibrant colours and quirky detailing.

The It-factor... The new boutique also stocks clothing, accessories and swimwear from a handful of young designer labels like Talulah, Bec & Bridge, Lucette and Maurie & Eve Platinum.

Where it's at... Piper Lane, Shop 446, Castle Towers, 6-14 Castle St, Castle Hill, NSW, (02) 9899 4888.

What's new... Luxe European-inspired fashion is now just a mouse-click away. With stockists already scattered throughout Queensland, NSW and Victoria, lovers of Melbourne-based label Little Tailleur can now shop online.

We love... From soft silk blouses and draped tunics to fine leather belts and the vintage-inspired Agatha Lace dress (6a), designer Georgette Tahche has drawn inspiration from her time in London and Paris to create a collection of wearable modern classics.

The It-factor... The user-friendly site offers close-ups from every angle, in every colour, and even provides you with styling tips – very net-a-porter.com. That, coupled with the beautiful campaign images, makes shopping the collection truly pleasurable.
